The image shows a worksheet with seven rows of a zigzag path of circles. Each row starts with a ball on the left and ends with a boy on the right. The path consists of circles connected by small squares, with arrows indicating the direction of the line. The path starts with a ball on the left and ends with a boy on the right.

The worksheet contains eight rows of tracing exercises. Each row consists of a ball icon on the left, a large circle with a left-pointing arrow, a dashed line connecting to a second circle, another dashed line connecting to a third circle, and a fourth circle with a right-pointing arrow. To the right of each row is a stick figure icon of a child. The goal is to trace the dashed lines and connect the circles to match each child with their ball.

GRAFOMOTRICIDAD

The image shows a handwriting practice sheet for the letter 'A'. At the top, the word 'GRAFOMOTRICIDAD' is written in large, bold, red capital letters. Below the title, there are seven columns. Each column contains a small illustration of a moon at the top, a dashed vertical line with an upward-pointing arrow in the middle, and a small outline of the letter 'A' at the bottom. Below these columns are five rows of handwriting lines. Each row consists of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. The first row has a small downward-pointing arrow on the left side of the top line. The second row has eight black dots on the top line, one in each column. The third, fourth, and fifth rows have three black dots on the top line, one in each of the first three columns.
