READING COMPREHENSION

In love with musical Theatre

You can do many things to have a good time. Do sports, go camping, watch a movie, play videogames... Today we are going to talk about musical theatre.

Musical theatre is not only a thing of Broadway (New York) or the West End (London). In the centre of many cities of Spain there are also different theatres. Currently, in Madrid you can see The Lion King The Musical.

Everybody knows what is The Lion King story about but if you want to know more, there is a short video of The Lion King The Musical on YouTube. In this promo video you can see the characters performing on stage at the Lope de Vega Theatre in Madrid. The performers aren't just singing; they're acting, dancing, and even doing acrobatics. You can also see the masks and costumes that they wear and the marionettes and puppets. Some of these puppets are really big, like the one of an Elephant, or the one of a Giraffe.

There are other famous musicals in Spain right now. For example, Matilda The Musical based on the book Matilda written by Roald Dahl. In this musical there are many children acting on stage. Another one, also based on a book by Roald Dahl, is Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. You probably remember the film with the actor Johnny Deep as Willy Wonka. One musical completely created in Spain is The Neverending Story. It is also based on a book of the same name by famous writer Michael Ende. In all these production children are the main actors.

In conclusion, musical theatre is becoming an important option of leisure.
