

Lilo and Stitch – A Story About Family

Lilo is a little girl.

She lives in Hawaii with her big sister, Nani.

Lilo is different.

She loves music, taking pictures, and dancing hula.

But Lilo feels sad. She has no friends.

One day, Lilo goes to the dog shelter.

She wants a pet.

She sees a strange blue animal.

His name is Stitch.

Lilo says, "I want this one!"

But Stitch is not a dog.

He is an alien from space!

He was made to break things and be bad.

He crashed on Earth and now he lives with Lilo.

At first, Stitch is very wild.

He makes a big mess.

He runs, bites, and breaks toys.

But Lilo is kind.

She teaches him to be good.

Lilo says, "Ohana means family.
Family means nobody gets left behind or forgotten."

Stitch does not understand.
But he listens.

Bad aliens come to catch Stitch.
They want to take him away.
Stitch runs. Lilo helps him.
She says, "He is my friend. He is my family."

At the end, Stitch learns something new.
He wants to stay. He wants to love.
He says, "This is my family. It is small... and broken... but it is good."

Now Lilo, Nani, and Stitch live together.
They are happy. They are a family.

VOCABULARY

shelter – refugio / perrera

strange – extraño

alien – extraterrestre

space – espacio

crashed – se estrelló / chocó

wild – salvaje / alocado

mess – desastre / lío

bites – muerde

Ohana means family – Ohana significa familia

nobody gets left behind – nadie se queda atrás

forgotten – olvidado

bad aliens – alienígenas malos

catch – atrapar

broken – roto

